

Some things which should be done or at least looking into regarding the Ale site at Camp Lakamaga

1. Mileage, especially on small dirt roads.
2. Plenty of signs, especially just before the turn-offs.
3. Include information on ticks—Lyme disease. Repellent, prevention, checking.
4. Parking space limited—Twin Citians should carpool.
5. Signs at the edges of camp saying, "you've gone too far." Include a map with mark showing "you are here." For people who may get lost at night—place in the middle of the path.
6. Warn smokers to be careful of embers and flame—there are many dried old leaves on the ground. This is especially important if we have a dry spring—check with the fire marshall about a possible fire ban.
7. Remind everyone to be respectful of the facilities, including the vegetation.
8. Put "head-hazard" ribbons or such on the northwest corner of the lodge.
9. Remind people that flashlights will be essential for everyone.
10. Reflector tape on signs for greater nighttime visibility.
11. Places to hang up clothing on hangers is limited.
12. Portable fans, lots of them.
13. Use the Bell!!! During final registration announce that the Bell means food is ready.
14. Remind Ed Stern to bring the crutches.
15. A shower curtain for small shower outside and signs designating which sex each of the indoor showers is (in the Troop House).
16. String up a tarp across the gang shower drying off area?
17. Tell people who need special diets that there is PLENTY of fully equiped kitchen and refrigerator space, especially in the Troop House. Can bring their own food.
18. Site Committee: soap, tampons, clothesline, mosquito repellent, first aid, flashlights and batteries, reflective tape, white hankies, bullhorn, emergency notification system, extra poster board, magic markers
19. Get the camp song from Lydia.
20. Give stars or demerits for cabin inspection.
21. Tent identification. →
22. Designate certain tents for late-night arrivals.
23. Steering Committee: Let Ed know if we want a drummer.
24. Directional signs for the way out too—especially at the fork in the road.
