

805 Ralston Drive
Bloomington, IN 47401
(812) 334-1509
December 9, 1983

Greetings!

It's time to make plans to attend the 1984 Midwest Morris Ale in lovely Bloomington, Indiana. As usual, it will take place on Memorial Day Weekend (May 25-28 this year), and the basic format and activities will remain a tradition unchanged.

We are planning a few innovations which we hope will make the weekend even more fun. Most notably, we expect to arrange transportation for Saturday's touring, and are planning to provide five meals: breakfast, box lunch, and dinner on Saturday, and brunch and dinner on Sunday. Many gallons of beer, including a specially commissioned homebrewed Ale ale, will be provided. You'll probably want to bring some reinforcements, though. The cost per person will be in the $18-23 range, depending upon the number of people who register.

We'll need your help. We'll need kitchen volunteers to assist our master chef with food preparation, serving, and cleaning up, and we'll need everyone's help in making sure we leave the camp facilities at least as clean and neat as we find them.

To enable us to enter the next phase of planning, please fill out the enclosed questionnaire and return it to me by January 18.

Thanks,

Amy Novick
Bloomington Quarry Morris

Please fill out this questionnaire and return it by January 18 to

Amy Novick
805 Ralston Drive
Bloomington, IN 47401

1. Name of team, squire, address _____

2. Number of people who will attend the ale: musicians _____ dancers _____ guests _____

3. How many will not eat red meat _____

How many will not eat chicken _____

How many will not eat cold cuts _____

4. What traditions does your team dance _____

5. Suggestions for mass dances (names of dances and traditions) _____

5. How important to the program are workshops: very _____ somewhat _____ not very _____ not at all _____

6. If workshops are important, what kind do you want: morris _____ jigs _____ mumming _____ fooling _____ clogging _____ sword _____ beer making _____ beer drinking _____ other kinds of dancing (specify) _____

_____ other kinds of foolishness (specify) _____

7. Would someone on your team be interested in leading a workshop?

(This does not guarantee that we'll be able to schedule everyone who wants to teach)

name _____ topic _____