

Workshops

"Fooling" will be led by Master Fool Jeff Mancl. He has two jigs to share with all you fools out there, and says "Bring Toys!!"

Rapper, as always, drew a lot of interest... including an unconfirmed leader! It will probably be a beginning-intermediate class, but then again, who knows? ANYONE who can loan us RAPPER SWORDS is encouraged to do so!

Obscure Traditions: To wit, Ducklington, has had a tentative offer for teaching. There is also a possibility of Adderbury hankie dances, and there were requests for workshops on Ascot under Wychwood and Fieldtown. If any (or all) of these interest you let me know and maybe I can coerce, plead, beg, or bribe instructors into definite commitments.

-> Feel free to offer to lead a workshop!... or to bribe or volunteer someone else! If anyone has any suggestions, let me know and I will follow up on them. My answering machine is always home.
