Stop: Sunday, May 27

Bloomington will be the site of the Fourth Annual Midwestern Morris Ale on Memorial Day weekend, May 25-27. Seventeen teams from throughout the Midwest and Canada will convene here to celebrate Spring with this ancient traditional dance that originates in England. Over 150 dancers will be touring the area and performing for the public.

Dances can be seen at the following times and places:

Saturday, May 26

11:45	Spencer Public Square
12 noon	Bloomington Courthouse Square
1:30	People's Park, corner Dunn & Kirkwood, Bloomington
2:30	Riddle Point, Lake Monroe Paynestown Recreational Area
3:30	Bryan Park, Bloomington
4:30	Mass Dance (all dancers present) at McCormick's Creek State Park

On Sunday all dancers will converge on Dunn Meadow, corner of 7th and Indiana, at 2 pm for a mass dance.

All performances are free and open to the public.
