INDIANA MEMORIAL UNION BOARD CONTRACT

The following is a binding contractual agreement between the Indiana Memorial Union Board and the Bloomington Quarry Morris Dancers for services provided for the 1992 Midwest Morris Ale. The performances will be held on May 23-24, 1992. Union Board agrees to pay the sum of $500.00 for said services. The payment will be by check made out to Bloomington Quarry Morris Dancers.

Indiana University regulations forbid the use of alcoholic beverages and/or other illegal substances while on University property. Violation of this regulation will result in forfeit of payment.

The Union Board and Indiana Memorial Union are not responsible for instruments, sound equipment, or other materials owned by individuals and used during performances nor are these organizations responsible for equipment left on the premises. The Union Board and Indiana Memorial Union are also not responsible for the actions of the individuals during the performances.

The following terms are in effect under this agreement. Union Board agrees to contribute $500.00 to the Bloomington Quarry Morris Dancers for the expenses involved in the 1992 Midwest Morris Ale. Union Board also agrees to reserve Dunn Meadow for May 24, 1992 for the mass performance of the Morris Dancers and contact the Indiana Daily Student for news coverage of this event. The Bloomington Quarry Morris Dancers agree to perform one mass dance in Dunn Meadow on May 24, 1992 and several small dances around the campus on both May 23 and May 24, 1992. The Bloomington Quarry Morris Dancers also agree to include Union Board's name on all advertisements subject to Union Board approval. For receiving Union Board's $500.00 contribution, the Bloomington Quarry Morris Dancers agree to perform at a Union Board sponsored event between October 1, 1992 and November 15, 1992. If in the event that the 1992 Midwest Morris Ale or the performances on the University property do not occur, Bloomington Quarry Morris Dancers agree to refund the $500.00 payment to Union Board.

The undersigned agree to the terms as set forth above:
